

Studio Hire for the Amateur/Hobbyist Photographer

Are you an amateur/hobbyist photographer wanting to explore studio work to add images to your own portfolio?

Elle Jé Photography Studio offers the following options:

Studio Hire with Tuition

£50 per hour of studio hire with tuition and assistance with the shoot

Studio Hire with tuition – the photographer already has his/her shoot prepared including models/products. The tuition is to advice and help with lighting set-ups to enable the creation of quality images to be used in your portfolio.

Suitable for photographers who understand their camera but looking to add studio imagery to their location work portfolio.

Studio Hire with Assistance

£120 for 4hrs studio hire, which includes assistance on hand to answer questions and give guidelines should you require some help. (This option is not tuition but support)

Suitable for the photographer that has had some experience in the studio has a shoot in mind but feels more comfortable if there is someone on hand should they need some guidance.

Studio Workshop

£150 for 6hour studio workshop for one person (also see our training section)

Studio Workshop teaches you the basics about studio lighting and studio equipment. With the opportunity to create images.

Suitable for beginners who have no experience in a studio and have no planned shoot but would like to have the experience of photographing in a professional studio.

Option one and two why not share the experience with a fellow photographer, maximum of two photographers.

Studio workshop there is additional charge for a second person.
